

- The first section is easy. It should be an exact copy of the third section from last week — that is, your goals from a week ago. (It can be empty for the first .)
- We had one main goal: finish Sprint 6. Everyone was assigned to complete Sprint 6. However, everyone had individual assignments inside of Sprint 6.
- The second section should report the progress you've made this week: what you've done, what worked, what you learned, where you had trouble, and where you are stuck.
- During this week, we finished Sprint 6 individually and as a group. In Sprint 6, we worked on our individual pieces of the events app, as well as updated the Project Tasks and Progress Trello board. I personally am in charge of Create Page and Search for Event. However, many of us helped each other when we had struggles. We also met with the TA on Thursday. During our TA meeting, he graded Sprint 5 with us.
- The third section should outline your plans and goals for the following week (including, in the team report, who is responsible). Bullet points are fine. If tasks from one week aren't yet complete, they should roll over into your tasks for the next week. It's good to include some less-detailed longer-range schedule items in this list as well, so that you don't think just about the next week.
- Our current goals, which are assigned to everyone, is to work on Sprint 7 and our presentation, as well as discuss and grade Sprint 6 with the TA. We also plan to work on our individual parts of the project, while also helping one another.
